THE ARMED MAN

Sussex Voiceworks is delighted to offer two opportunities to take part in singing the deservedly popular and rewarding choral work, 'The Armed Man' by Karl Jenkins.

Come and Sing Workshop 27th April

An enjoyable and relaxed afternoon focusing on the Choral Suite. This is a chance to sing with the choir led by their Musical Director and accompanist in the friendly surroundings of Southwick Methodist Church. Free refreshments are provided during the breaks as well as the chance to socialise and make friends. Family and friends are invited to listen to a sing through at the end of the afternoon. Parking is available in the streets around the church.

Registration for this event can be made by returning the form below.

Concert 29th June

A performance of the full work accompanied by Hangleton Brass Band. We invite you to extend your booking and participate in the final concert of the choir's 50th Anniversary celebrations. The registration fee will cover hire of the full choral score and attendance at the Workshop plus two Sussex Voiceworks rehearsals. These will take place on Monday 17th and Monday 24th June, 7.15-9.15pm at St Peters Church, West St, Shoreham-by-Sea, BN43 5WG.

Registration for this event can be made by returning the form below, or in-person at
